

Code: R3-KAS.US-C

ELECTRIC STRIKE BOX WITH FACE PLATE R3-KAS.US-C

The R3-KAS.US-C metal box is adapted to the installation of R3, R4, R5 electromagnetic strikes. The set includes a face plate that matches the box.

|                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Application:     | Door lock (strike) R3, R4, R5                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Color:           | Silver                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Plate thickness: | 2 mm                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Material:        | Steel galvanized                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Main features:   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The removable cover allows the box to be installed in both the left and right doors,</li> <li>• The set includes a face plate that matches the box</li> </ul> |
| Weight:          | 1.12 kg                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Dimensions:      | 255 x 66 x 36.5 mm                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Guarantee:       | 2 years                                                                                                                                                                                                |