

Code: P19SZ-2U/300-L

DRAWER P19SZ-2U/300-L

Drawer for RACK 19" cabinet, secured with a key lock. The P19SZ-2U/300-L shelf can be used to store documents or small tools inside the RACK cabinet. The installed lock effectively protects the contents of the drawer against unauthorized access.

|                   |                                                                                                               |
|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Width:            | 19 "                                                                                                          |
| Height:           | 2 U                                                                                                           |
| Mount:            | four-point                                                                                                    |
| Bearing capacity: | 30 kg                                                                                                         |
| Application:      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• RACK 450 mm</li> <li>• RACK 600 mm</li> <li>• RACK 800 mm</li> </ul> |
| Depth:            | 360 mm                                                                                                        |
| Main features:    | Shelf slides out up to 250 mm from the front mounting rails                                                   |
| Dimensions:       | 482 x 360 x 88 mm - RACK 19", 2U                                                                              |
| Weight:           | 5.93 kg                                                                                                       |
| Guarantee:        | 2 years                                                                                                       |

